

UT Health San Antonio

Undergrad

Evaluated By : Fairley, Romeo (Faculty)
Evaluating : Ning, Zhiyuan - Student 2028
Rotation : CIRC 5005 Clinical Skills
Dates : Jan 15, 2025
Completed on: Jan 16, 2025

* indicates a mandatory response

HISTORY TAKING AND PHYSICAL EXAM - DIRECT OBSERVATION

*Based on your observation, please select the item(s) that describe the behavior(s) the student demonstrated:

- | | |
|--|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Used a logical progression of questioning. | <input type="checkbox"/> Identified and described normal findings. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Questions were prioritized and not excessive. | <input type="checkbox"/> Explained exam maneuvers to patient. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Demonstrated effective communication skills (e.g., use of silence, open-ended questions, body language, listening skills, and avoidance of jargon). | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Acknowledged gaps in knowledge, adjusted to feedback, and then obtained additional information |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Anticipated and interpreted patient's emotions. | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Delivered a presentation organized around the chief concern. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Incorporated responses appropriate to age, gender, culture, race, religion, disabilities, and/or sexual orientation. | <input type="checkbox"/> When asked, identified pertinent positives and negatives that supported hypothesis. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Questions were purposefully used to clarify patient's issues. | <input type="checkbox"/> Supported management plans with general information. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Was able to filter symptoms into pertinent positives and negatives. | <input type="checkbox"/> When prompted, adjusted presentation in length and complexity to match situation and receiver of information. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Targeted the exam to areas necessary for the encounter. | <input type="checkbox"/> Incorporated patient's preferences and privacy needs. |

What did you observe that made you select the item(s)? Please be as specific as possible.

did an H/P and presentation

By pressing submit, you are also confirming that you have seen the result of this assessment.
Thank you

Submit

Cancel